The One Woman® two-day women's business development conference was held recently at The Marriott Sugar Land Town Square in Sugar Land, Texas. The goal of the conference was centered around both established business owners and aspiring entrepreneurs by providing dynamic workshops. The annual conference, organized by Margo E. Williams (MWH Public Relations), is a small business promotion, advocacy and development program of Texas Business Alliance, whose Founder is Jeffrey L. Boney.

The conference featured general sessions, tailored workshops, hands-on instruction, networking receptions, an Expo, team-building experiences, Youth Explosion! and an awards brunch honoring small business owners and supplier diversity champions. Speakers included: Lisa Ling, Valeisha M. Butterfield, Riyad Abu Taha, Wanda Adams, Dr. Melanie Brown, LaTayne Bruce, Donna Fujimoto Cole, Jewel Smith, Darian Ward and Deborah Duncan. HP was a major sponsor of this year's event and represented by Nancy Minchillo.

Jacqueline Lawson, Houston Forward Times Digital Media Director, captured the pulse of the conference through pictures and videos.
