Houston, TX. -XI Chapter celebrated its 50th Anniversary with a luncheon at Hilton Houston, Hobby Airport Boulevard, Houston, TX 77061. The theme was "Fulfilling a Legacy of Giving Back to the Community."

Josephine Anderson, XI Chapter's twenty-third president states that "We are so very grateful to our organization. D. Scott along with twenty-two enthusiastic ladies (Houston's Best representing a myriad of businesses and professions) in April, 1962, whose vision was to promote high scholastic standards, personal growth, and career advancement providing opportunities for community service through networking and personal commitment."

Under the leadership of President Pauline D. Scott, XI Chapter hosting its First National Convention at the Shamrock Hotel, was Houston's First Black Organization to house its convention, delegation, and activities in a large hotel. This event marked the beginning of many civic, political, and educational "Firsts" for the chapter.

Today our vision is that "we will be the best family-oriented sorority in Houston." XI Chapter, Eta Phi Beta Sorority, Incorporated, with the Shads (husbands of Sorority members), the Bee-Éttes, Seniors, and Eta Kids, (our young girls) be a model organization that is visible, effective, self-sustaining and growing to support the needs of the community. The motto, "Not for Ourselves, But for Others," we will continually strive to enhance involvement through Intellectual and Physically Disabled Citizens, 2) Programs to Assist Business and Professional Women, 3) Educational Programs, 4) Scholarships, 5) Charitable Donations, 6) Youth Programs, 7) Breast Cancer Prevention and Domestic Violence Prevention.

Eta Phi Beta Sorority, Incorporated, a National Organization, founded by eleven women in Detroit, Michigan chapters in six regions of the United States, including the Virgin Islands is celebrating seventy years of service. President is Loretta Kirk Adair, Gamma Chapter of Cleveland, Ohio.
