

HAPPY 70TH BIRTHDAY BETTY!

The Missouri City Chasewood Clubhouse was the party place recently, as Betty Munks celebrated her 70th birthday with family and friends. The themed “All White Affair”, featured fresh red roses, catering by Angele Creuzot, while the birthday girl arrived via limo donning a crystal tiara! Terry Franks served as DJ and kept the party rocking. Her daughter Alice Van, along with the rest of her family thanks everyone for coming out and sharing in the celebration!

Speaking of all white, was I the only person that didn't know the attire for a Maze, featuring Frankie Beverly concert? Let me tell you, there were so many people dressed in white and wild get-ups, I didn't know if it was Easter Sunday or Halloween. Yes, I got pictures, no, you can't see them. But, for the most part, the concert was off the chain and packed. I am also glad to report Frankie sounded well, despite recent illness rumors.

Now, I finally found a reason to be out in the sun all day. That's right...Texans training camp has begun. Braving the sun was well worth all the eye candy out on the practice field! Namely, Arian Foster, Andre Johnson, and Duane Brown, to name a few. Glad to see the guys back in action and prepping for the season. I got my Gatorade, sunscreen and sun visor, hut hut!!

WHISPERS IN THE WIND (A LITTLE DIRT FOR THE DAY)

What now, the city is buzzing over the recent arrest of a Houston Police Officer. I know, which one, right? Well, this is the fella that pulled a female over, arrested her, then took her to an unknown location where he proceeded to have sex with her, then took her straight to jail! What I heard the tongue-waggers saying is they can't understand why he did the second part? She probably thought after sex, she was gonna be set free. Not! I'm just shaking my head on this
