

Cougars Announce Spring Football Schedule

Written by Yolande Y. Lezine, Sports Editor
Sunday, 01 April 2012 21:31

Houston has announced its 2012 spring football practice schedule, which will culminate with a Friday night Spring Game on April 13th at 7:00 p.m. at Robertson Stadium.

Excitement continues to build around the UH program as Coach Levine looks to build and open his tenure with a 30-14 victory over nationally ranked Penn State in the 2012 TicketCity Bowl in Dallas.

They also inked the top class in the Conference USA Signing Day, and the first Scout.com "Five Star" player in school history.

Practices, which began on Wednesday, March 21st was opened to the public. The team will host their first scrimmage at Robertson Stadium on March 31st at 7:00 p.m. and a second scrimmage on April 7th. The final event will be the annual "Red and White" game on April 13th. That event is free to all fans.